

Here for Good

ANNUAL FUND

PASADENA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

FOR A GREATER PASADENA AREA

We know you care about Greater Pasadena, and the Pasadena Community Foundation (PCF) helps you translate your compassion into impact.

We work closely with the nonprofits doing important work across our region, and we see everyday where more help is needed. For 73 years, donors have trusted us to connect their generosity with local opportunities to make a difference. Your gift to PCF's Here for Good Annual Fund sustains local expertise and relationships. It helps us continue to connect across causes and sectors while welcoming more neighbors into the work of strengthening Greater Pasadena.

You belong in this community of change makers! Join us by giving to the Here for Good Annual Fund today.

Making an Impact

So far in 2026, PCF has invested more than $3 million in core community grants and over $500,000 in scholarships for 154 students. Our Eaton Fire Relief & Recovery Fund added more than $6.1 million. Your Here for Good Annual Fund gift powers the engine behind all of it: the grant reviews, donor stewardship, nonprofit partnerships, and the team who deliver community grants year-round and move fire relief dollars to neighbors most in need.
